

Exporting Data to a File

You can export data for various components throughout the Cantara Integration Platform to Microsoft Excel format.

Example:

To export data to a file

1. Access the component that contains the data you want to export.
2. Click the Export button located in the top right of the screen (Icon of a document with an X through the middle)
3. A file download prompt in your web browser should appear.